

Shop Talk #31

Jason
McQuire

Tom
Stiles

Nov. 12, 2009

Thursday, 8:30-12:30 PM
Lunch Provided

New Yorkers for Constitutional Freedoms

Jason: Chief Operating Officer; met his wife, Lorenne, while a student at Practical; four children; pastored for 10 years in Naples, NY. Leads weekly Bible studies at the Capitol; graduated from Anderson; Church must speak up concerning moral issues within our culture.

Tom: Director of Church Relations; he and his wife have four children all serving in the ministry; pastored three churches prior to joining NYCF in July 2000; graduated from Maranatha and Grand Rapids; preaches in 75 or more churches in New York each year; believes that America's greatest need is not political but revival

Topics

- ★ Biblical Foundations of America's Government
- ★ A N.Y. State Government Primer
- ★ Issues Confronting the Christian Community
- ★ Pastors and Politics: A Historic Perspective
- ★ Question & Answer Time

Hosted by South Otselic
FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH
130 Gladding Street
315-653-7875 revjrmoores@yahoo.com
James Moore, pastor

Directions: From I-81, about 15-20 miles east of Cortland. When in South Otselic (route 26) turn west onto Gladding Street; church 1/4 mile on right.

Cost- $10 per person

Your church would greatly benefit if you could bring 1 or 2 of your leaders

PLEASE REGISTER NO LATER THAN NOV. 3. SEND $10 WITH REGISTRATION. MAKE CHECKS PAYABLE TO "ESF"

Cut and Mail to:

SHOP TALK: 1726 Union Center Highway, Endicott, NY 13760

Name _____

Church _____

My wife is coming _____

(Her Name)

Please give us the names of others coming from your church ~ $10 per person (Pastor's wife free)

Questions?
Call 607-748-0860 or email
cgolden3@stny.rr.com or go to www.esfbc.org